

December 2013 – Winter Solstice at RTB

Dear Friend,

Thank you to everyone that came out to the farm last month to participate in our first Open Market Day. It was wonderful to meet so many community members that share a passion for healthy, locally grown food. If you missed this event, you are in luck, we will be hosting another sale event next week! This is a great opportunity for last minute gift ideas for your favorite foodie or to purchase something special for your holiday meal.

RTB will be celebrating the Winter Solstice with a Sale Day from 11:00 - 4:00 pm on December 21st. We will have grass-fed beef available with many premier steak choices, as well as select cuts of veal. The veal is a two heritage breed cross of Irish Dexter and Scottish Highlander. In honor of the winter solstice, RTB will be offering a farm tour from 2:00pm – 4:00pm, a wonderful opportunity to get outside for a beautiful walk with your family and friends.

Wishing you a happy healthy holiday season!

With love, light and positive energy,

Desa & Liz
